LAWMAKERS MAY COMPEL ODDIE TO SAW WOOD

ACTION OF GOVERNOR NOT SATISFACTORY AND FURTHER STEPS NECESSARY.

It was reported on the street yesterday that the office of the attorney general would soon take steps in furtherance of their desire for a special call of the legislature. They have made a request of the governor to call a special session and place before the legislature certain charges which the office of attorney general has made against certain judicial officers. Instead of taking action upon the matter, the governor constituted himself judge and jury and called upon the accused officer for a statement of his position. In so doing the governor practically took the matter out of the hands of the attorney general and has constituted himself the judge.

It would appear that after the statement of Judge Langan is received, the governor will read it and if the statement is such as to convince the governor that the judge is not guilty of the charges, he will refuse to call the session, but, if on the other hand the statement does not please his fancy, he will call the special session and will thus practically say to the state that he considers Judge Langan guilty. The position is a most unfortunate one for a governor to be placed in and has made no friends for the executive on either side of the fence.

If current rumors be correct, the attorney general will take the matter in hand and will present a petition for the signatures of each member of the legislature demanding of the governor that he call the session. This petition will recite the facts of the case, so far as it has taken action and will show that the attorney general has been ignored in his request; that the governor has taken the matter into his own hands and has usurped the duties of the legislature.—Carson News.

No Division of Sentiment In Choosing to Come This Way

Sidney R. Moore, President Tonopah Auto Club. Just received wire from A. L. Westgard, stating that Indiana tour has decided to cross state by way of Tonopah and Goldfield.

The foregoing message sets at rest doubts which had been entertained regarding the coming of the Indiana Lincoln Highway tourists and the members of the Tonopah Auto club will prepare a reception that will convince the tourists that they did wisely by forsaking the middle or northern route which report said they had decided on.

Details of the progress of the party have not been received and nothing definite will be known until the arrival at Salt Lake which will occur some time toward the end of the week. Thence the route will be by way of Ely, Hot Creek, Tonopah, Goldfield, Bishop and on to Tahoe through Mono county.

A. L. Westgard, who came to Tonopah last winter for the purpose of logging the route, is credited with bringing about the change of heart and the people of the southern country will have to thank him for diverting the caravan from the Eureka-Fallon route. Shortly after leaving Indianapolis a division of sentiment developed among the travelers, some of whom wanted to adhere to the original resolution to come this way rather than by the northern course which was espoused by an advertising contingent of car demonstrators who knew little, if anything, of the country through which they proposed to go. It was only after they had been on the road for several days and became familiar with the western country that they were convinced that more good could be done in a business way in the mining camps. They were shown that Tonopah, Goldfield and Bishop owned more machines than all of northern Nevada combined and therefore concluded there was a better chance of interesting buyers in this section than by touring the alfalfa regions. Then they learned of the splendid hotels along this route and the matter was settled beyond recall.

If it had not been for this decision there would have been a split in the ranks of the autoists, the demonstrators going north and the tourists, headed by Westgard, coming this way. In the event of a division it had been settled for Governor Oddie to welcome the visitors at State Line and continue through Ely, Eureka, Fallon and Reno. The southern division was to be cared for by Sidney R. Moore and the receipt of the message settles the matter in the minds of Mr. Moore and others that the entire party is coming.

Ed Robinson, a teamster by occupation, has received a wire telling him that the man killed at Caliente last week in a fight was none other than his brother from whom he has been separated for many years. The message contained a simple statement: "Ed. It is your brother."

On the strength of this message a telegram was sent to Ira Robinson, at Boise, Idaho, and three other brothers who will come to Tonopah by the first trains from their homes. Then the brothers will go to Caliente and have the body, which was buried on the ninth, disinterred and shipped to the old home at Featherville, Iowa. The father of the boys was buried there last April and it is the wish of the family that the dead man at Caliente be interred there also.

WARM WEATHER DOES NOT LESSEN CUPID'S CHARMS

GRAVE APPREHENSION FELT FOR AMERICANS WHEN STUDENTS MAKE DEMONSTRATION SUNDAY

By Associated Press.

MEXICO CITY, July 12.—An anonymous letter threatening to blow up the United States embassy was received today by Ambassador Wilson and referred to the Mexican foreign office.

The department of the interior announced today that representatives of 30,000 workmen have appealed to the government for military instruction in order to be prepared to fight for national existence.

Students are planning for a big demonstration Sunday, and it is feared by conservative Mexicans and in the American colony that serious trouble will result.

Despite protests of the American ambassador newspapers publish anti-American articles. El Pas devotes the first page to a sensational editorial in which it cautions prudence but strongly intimates the time is near when Mexicans must fight the United States.
